...how far down does my deepness go?

does it only extend to the end of my clothes?

is it the shoes that I wear? Or the car that I drive?

do I appreciate the gift of simply being alive?

am I the life of the party when times are good?

or spending all my time on fun and games?

am I searching for the true God while he may yet be found?
